

BUILDING JUSTICE OUT OF CRISIS

12.30 – 3.30 pm Friday 22 May 2009, Business Centre, City Chambers, Edinburgh

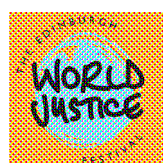

As the failures of the markets create economic crisis; and climate change leads to environmental crisis; we need a new model for world development, based on the needs of people not the need to make a profit

Time for questions and discussion about our key expectations of the new global order.

Organised by UNISON Scotland, World Development Movement and Edinburgh World Justice Festival

To register for this event please contact Edinburgh UNISON, 0131 220 5655; branchoffice@unison-edinburgh.org.uk

A new world order which Puts People First ?

Banks are being nationalized; the roles of global economic agencies are in question. What do we want them to do now?

Douglas Alexander MP

Secretary of State for International Development

Allyson Pollock

Centre for International Public Health Policy, Edinburgh University

Iain Macwhirter

Sunday Herald journalist and rector of Edinburgh University

Benedict Southworth

World Development Movement

Chair: Mike Kirby, Convenor, UNISON Scotland

All photos are from the Put People First event, London 28 March 2009, before the G20 meeting.

Enquiries: Matthew Crighton; 07851 348426

