

Social Work in Scotland -

asylum seekers children, direct payments and other issues

Local Government Conference Delegates are invited to meet members of the Scottish Social Work Issues Group (SWIG) to hear reports on the work of the Group over the past year.

Speakers:-

Kate Ramsden and John Stevenson

Co-authors of Asylum in Scotland – child's welfare paramount?
A guide for members published by UNISON Scotland and BASW.

Stephen Smellie, Chair of SWIG

will report on work with disabled people's organisations on a joint statement on direct payments and research into the needs of PAs

This will also be an opportunity for colleagues in Social Work across the UK to share experiences and discuss how to continue to enhance UNISON's Social Work agenda.

SUNDAY 17TH JUNE, 5.30 PM. GRAND HOTEL, BRIGHTON.

Tea and coffee served.