

There is an alternative.

a myth that our public services need to be cut to the bone.

Jobs, services, fair taxation, and a Living Wage.

PUBLIC WORKS:

But there is a better way.

Let's work together to improve our precious public services for all.

Scotland needs quality public services - but everywhere the talk is of cuts and job losses.

It doesn't have to be this way.

Come and find out about the alternatives:

- How fair taxation and a living wage can support services
- How communities and trade unions are defending services and jobs
- Why public is better than private
- What you can do to protect your services, your community, your job
